SPECIAL EVENTS:

Friday, 3rd June

3pm Launch of the 'St. Hugh's Self-Guided Tour'

St. Hugh's is an historically important church which has been at the centre of Quethiock parish for many centuries. It is full of interesting features and, of course, stories. On this special occasion, the Vestry will be open and the elaborate Vashmond tomb and newly restored 'Saints' window available for viewing.

Saturday, 4th June

2-4pm Songs and Music from the Queen's years

While browsing and having tea, enjoy a variety of music played on the organ and other instruments.

5pm (gathering from 4pm) CARNIVAL!

The Carnival will leave from Quethiock School. Walkers are welcome. Please show your support and give generously.
